About Cisper

Recognized for always doing different and investing in the aesthetics of its products, Cisper follows consolidating its operations in the housewares market with innovative, high quality and distinctive design products.

Its portfolio was reconfigured to present its customers products more in line with market trends, and to better communicate the attributes that have always guided its production: do it differently with the creativity and the power to enchant. We created concepts based in three inspirations, which were designed according to different lifetime situations . They are: Meeting, Celebration and Utilities.

The variety of products provides versatility and the opportunity to experience new ideas in different moments of life, in endless ways. In celebrations, meetings or for essential utilities, more formal or casual moments, on daily or special occasion, Cisper products offer the creative potential to change and reinvent itself.

Brand Changes

In 2013 the brand has undergone a redesign in its visual and verbal identity, searching for greater recognition and identification with their target through its new positioning.

Along with these changes we also reconfigured some brand pillars, we created a slogan, started our activities in social networks, redefined product classification and create an image database

These changes are also reflected in the new pattern of packaging art, with adjustments for strengthen communication positioning and main attributes of products. The aim of these changes is to suggest ideal product for every occasion, once that different moments call for new ideas.

In 2014 the communication on social networks was strengthened, seeking greater recognition and interaction. We kept working on our communication in the media offline and online in order to narrow our relationships with the press, especially with gastronomy, decoration and lifestyle experts.

In 2015 we have made some adjustments on the packaging in order to reinforce the use indication of our products, promoting greater differentiation between the lines and increasing the impact on the point of sale. These changes you already can see throughout our catalog.

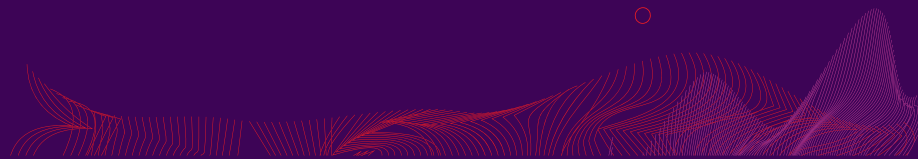

CISPER

Different like you.

CONCEPTS AND VISUAL DRIVERS

Cisper is different like you. For this reason we organize our portfolio on concepts that emphasize three inspirations, which were designed according to the different situations of life, each represented by different visual elements in their packaging and communications.

MEETING:

Connections and Curves

The Meeting concept is set to products that have connection with special moments, and that enhance the pleasure of being with our beloved ones.

Life is an opportunity to meet. To live the endless possibilities we provide a line of stylish products that express with beauty and sophistication the delight of being with friends, loves and family.

CELEBRATION

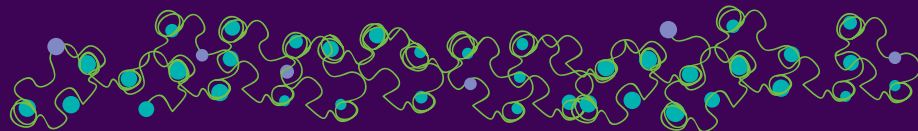

Asymmetry and Curves

The Celebration concept brings products specially selected to express and transmit the importance of the act celebration.

The more we celebrate life, the more we have to celebrate - no matter the size of our achievements. The celebration is a great device for joy and our products reflect this with simplicity and elegance.

UTILITIES

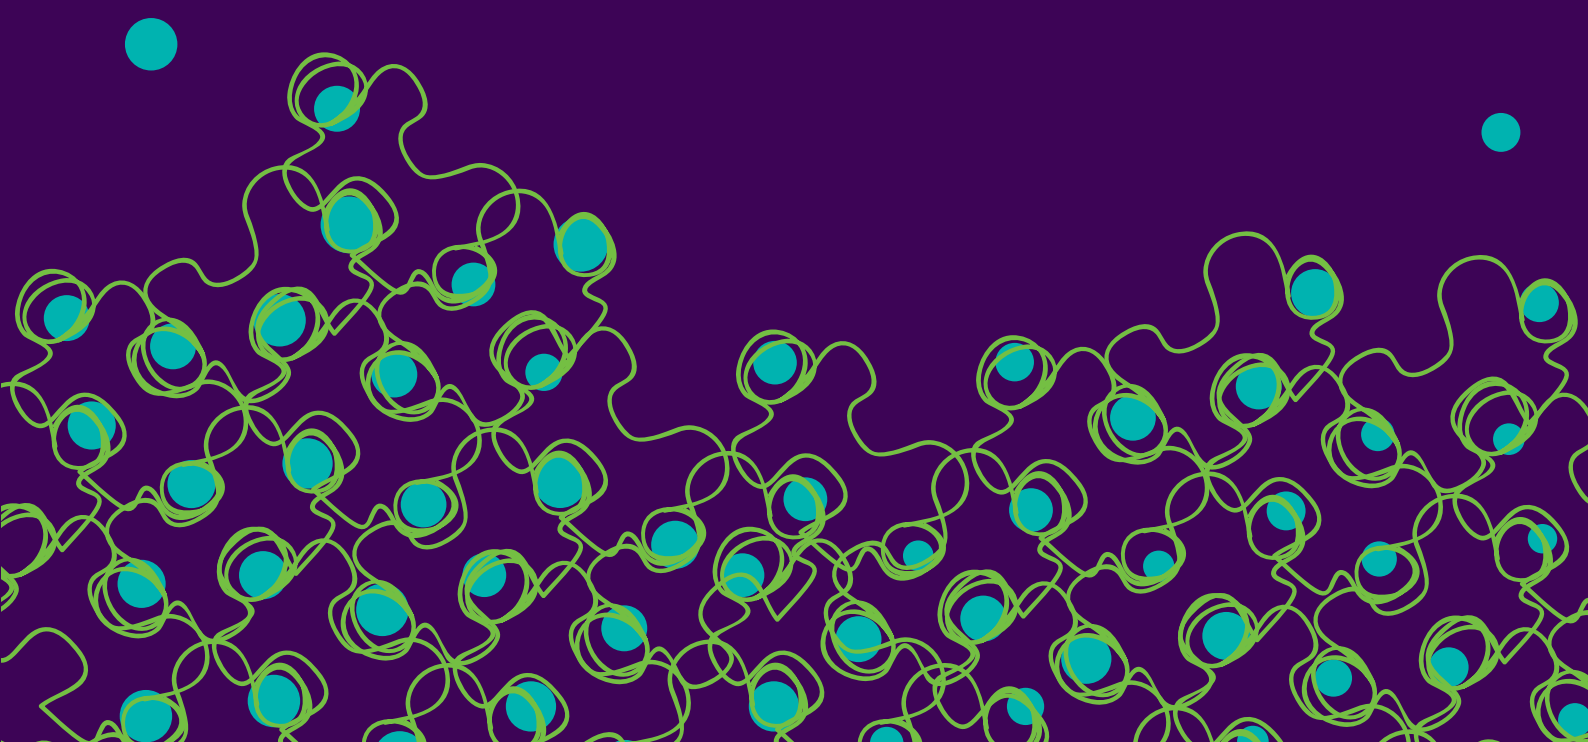

Fittings

The Utilities concept represents products designed to provide practicality, products that helps you to cook with no mysteries, lightly, with tools that are intelligent and helpful in our routine, always quick to find, to open, to use, to close and to save.
